

Wednesday 29th April:

Here is today's little ditty to read together.

Tricky word:

cocoon

caterpillar

butterfly

Look, it is a cocoon.

The caterpillar is in there.

Look, it begins to open.

What is it? I know, it's a butterfly!

Notes to parents: I don't expect the children to be able to read the tricky words straight away but if you've looked at them together before you start to read, the children should be able to get them in context. Once you've read a few times you can have a go at the writing challenge:

A butterfly has come out of the cocoon but what does it look like? Can you draw the butterfly and write 3 short sentences to tell me what it's like. You can start your sentence with "It is" or "It has". I'd love to see your writing!
