

Book: Christmas According to Humphrey by Elliot Chapman

My favourite character in the book would be Humphrey because he is the main character. I like how he is a cute, fluffy hamster that can talk and understand people like my hamster Charlie. My favourite trick that he did was when he played Jingle Bells on the piano at Daniel's house to teach him. Also, I like how he is able to get out of his cage using the door that doesn't lock. Like Charlie, Humphrey has a warm fluffy bed made of cotton wool but only Humphrey runs in his wheel. I don't think it would be good to be a hamster in the class Room 26 though because they keep you in there all night and lock up the doors... it would be lonely and cold!
