

Monday 18th May:

Here is today's little ditty to read together. But, look at the new sound on page 2 first!

Tricky word: fingers supper

Have you ever seen a sight so odd

A goat in a boat trying to catch a cod!

He throws out his rod and crosses his fingers tight.

He would like to have a fishy supper
tonight!

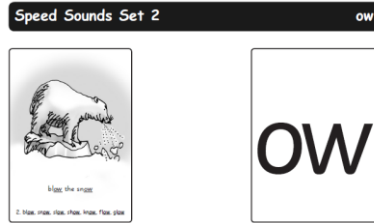

Notes to parents: I don't expect the children to be able to read the tricky words straight away but if you've looked at them together before you start to read, the children should be able to get them in context. Once you've read a few times you can have a go at writing today's 'hold a sentence'...

Here is a goat in a boat.

Extension Sentence: He has got a cod for his tea.

When writing, don't forget to encourage the children to use their neat writing, leave finger spaces and sound out their words. Happy reading and writing to you all!

Sound time!

Look, we can make this sound in 2 ways!
ow blow the snow and oa goat in a boat
Now can you read the words...
