Last Week's Round-up...

What a busy week!

Thanks to those who joined us last week for consultation meetings. We now just have Chestnut class to catch up on and there is an opportunity to come in to speak with Mr Warburton on Thursday. A huge thanks to Mrs Hammond for organising the book fair and also to those who supported it over the last two weeks. We had total sales of £744.60 which means we receive £297.84 commission and we earn £322.84 to spend on books for school in addition to having chosen £25 worth of books from the stock in the sale. The children enjoyed showing off their odd socks on Tuesday and we took time in assemblies and classrooms to think about the many differences that make us all unique as well as the similarities that we share with our friends at school and with people all over the world! Thanks to everyone who supported our Children In Need day. We raised a total of £302 which we will send on to the national campaign next week.

It was a real privilege to be joined on Wednesday afternoon by the Rhythm Stix drumming group from the Pottergate Centre. The children enjoyed every minute of their performance... especially the Makaton version of This is Me as the finale to the concert. Choir finished the busy week off with a wonderful performance at St Mary's church in Lesbury. Thanks to all who came along to support. See you in the week,

Mrs G

What's on this week...

Teacher led clubs are back on this week on Monday and Thursday evenings. These clubs will run for the next three weeks.

We are looking forward to seeing Willow class families for lunch on Wednesday, please ensure you book by 3pm on Monday and come to the main entrance at 11.45 on Wednesday. Rowan class will share their class assembly with us on Thursday afternoon at 14.30.

If you'd like to order Christmas cards from your child's sample that was sent home at the end of last week, please get these back to us at the beginning of the week.

Children are invited to 'wear what they like' on Friday in exchange for a donation towards our Christmas fair. This could be a bottle (something to drink, shower gel, bubble bath etc) or something for the children's toy stall. Please bring these with you on Friday. A reminder that our school Christmas fair is on Friday 29th November at 15.15pm.

Secret head teacher spots...

Lots of children across school have been spotted out and about, sharing their talents and supporting our community:

A huge well done to all of the children across school who marched in the town's Remembrance Parade. Children who took part were recognised for their contribution in assemblies last week.

Well done to Tom Rose from Willow class who performed brilliantly with Alnwick Academy of Dance at the Playhouse Concert Band's 30th Anniversary Concert last Friday evening.

A HUGE WELL DONE TO...

Sully Conroy, Ada Joyce, Phoebe Westwell, Amber Lamb, Jonny Evans, Niamh Holland, Franklin Stevens, Ayva Shiel, Ivy Archer, Sofia Pearse and George Rose.

We are very proud of you all!

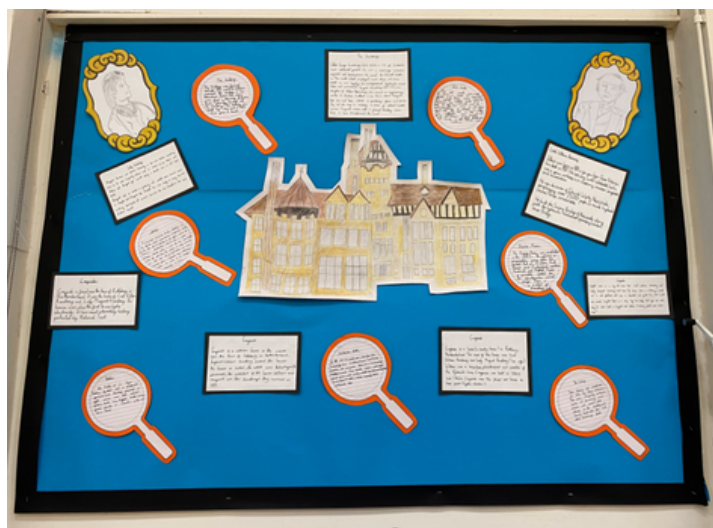

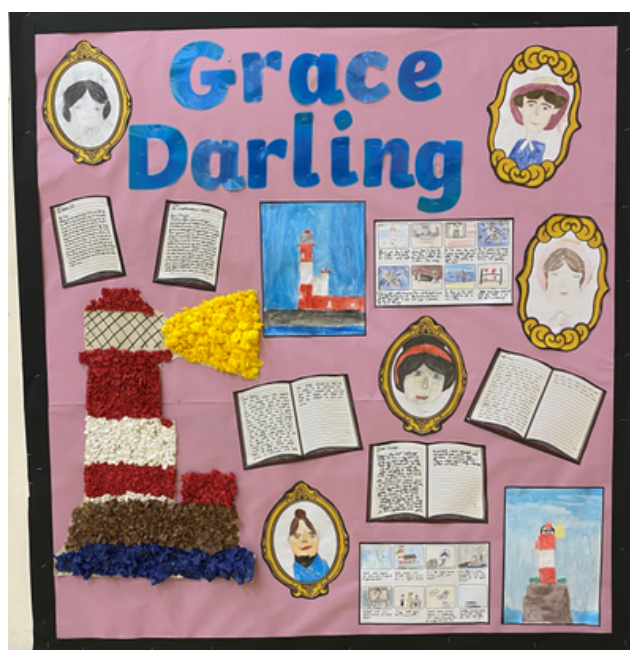

Autism Support Morning

We will be joined in school by Sheila Davies, from the Toby Henderson Trust, who will be able to give an insight into Toby Henderson, who they are and what they offer.

We hope to set up a monthly coffee morning looking at a focus area in which parents would like support.

Tuesday 26th November 08:45 School

Our new hall display is coming on nicely... here are Sycamore's Grace Darling and Larch's Cragside contributions

HAVE A LISTEN TO THIS...

Because we enjoyed the Rhythm Stix performance of This is Me so much, here's a version for us all to enjoy.
